

Who We Are

Sopris Growth is a single-family office that partners with founder-owned businesses through long-term, direct investments.

As a family business ourselves, we take a patient, relationship-first approach and work closely with management teams to help navigate inflection points and build durable value.

The Sopris Growth team includes 9 investment professionals, and Sopris Capital has more than 30 people across our investment strategies.

Offerings

As long-term investors, we are committed to our portfolio companies by providing not only funding but guidance and partnership, including:

- + Shaping Strategy and Building Management Organization
- + Serving as Strategic Advisors
- + Utilizing our Strong Network of Industry Relationships
- + Leveraging an Experienced Culture with a Proven Track Record
